...PRESENTATION AT MY OF... W. P. DOLAND, Treasurer of Multnomah County.

Arrest of a Secessionist.—Weeding out Uncle Sam's Garden.

Our readers will recollect that some weeks ago one Moses D. Stannard of Madison, Conn., raised a secession flag upon his premises, much to the disgust of loyal citizens in that town, and persisted in keeping it floating, although he did not name it a secession flag. Subsequently our correspondent there wrote us that Mr. S. had allowed the true flag of our country to be raised and that quiet prevailed.

It however seems that Mr. Stannard has been afflicted anew with the rebellion mania, for an order came on from the State Department for his arrest and lodgment in Fort Lafayette.

Marshal David H. Carr took the Shore Line Mail train from this city on Sunday evening, at 8 o'clock; left the train at Guilford, four miles west of Madison, and at daybreak this morning appeared at his residence, two miles north of Madison Centre, and arrested him without resistance. He expressed surprise at the proceedure, but of course could make no demonstration against the order of the Government, as there was a sufficient force with the Marshal to place a strong obstacle in that direction. He was placed in a hack and brought to Guilford Station this morning. Mr. Stannard is a man of muscle, about forty, and is reported to have been a longney secessionist, probably thinking his position would screen him from the notice of Government; he has a wife and one child and is possessed of some thousands of dollars worth of property. He passed through this city on the half past 9 o'clock train, en route for Fort Lafayette.—New Haven (Conn.) Palladium.

The above incidents remind us of an occurrence in Yamhill County, where a secessionist raised a disunion flag, and dared the Union men to take it down. It was not regarded here as giving aid and comfort to the enemy. In Connecticut a different view of such acts is taken, and their author sent to Lafayette. In our opinion there are but two sides to the question now before the country, UNION and DISUNION.

A singular artillery battalion is now being organized at Richmond, Indiana. It is to consist of six hundred men, with one hundred guns—the guns to have the capacity of carrying a two pound ball two and a half miles. A portion of the guns required for this battalion will be made in Richmond.—They will be of steel barrels, and very superior in workmanship.

A son was born to the Thirty-seventh New York Regiment in camp the other day, and was christened "Abe Lincoln" with great ceremoniousness. The Chaplain performed the rite, the Lieutenant Colonel and a Captain stood god-father, and the Surgeon sponsor. The natural father was somewhere in the crowd.

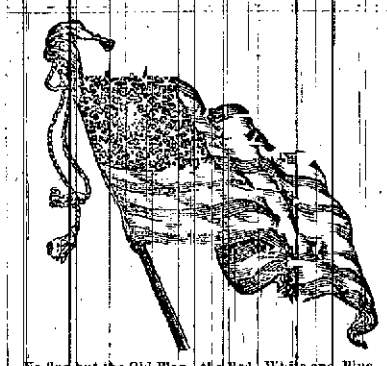
OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY.



No flag but the Old Flag—the Red, White and Blue,
With the stars of a Union unbroken and true!
Arise and defend it! ye sons of the brave,
Whose blood bought the banner your valor must save

WEDNESDAY MORNING, NOV. 13, 1861.

The New Senator.

On Saturday last the Advertiser of this city, had the brazen assurance to assert that Benjamin Stark was a Union man. For the last six months it has been perfectly notorious that he has declared himself against our Government, in the most gross manner, and in favor of the government known as the Southern Confederacy. There is no more question among our Union-loving citizens, who have been witnesses of the declarations of Benjamin Stark, that he is as devoted a subject to Jeff. Davis as he has to his dominions,—than that there exists such a person as Benjamin Stark.

Can our government place any reliance upon the loyalty of such a man? Would that government dare trust him with its money or with important communications, depending upon his loyalty? It would be folly and madness to think of it.

The appointment of such a man as Senator is a grievous insult to the loyal people of Oregon. But we could expect nothing less from a secession Governor. It would be justice to our people if the Senate should refuse him a seat upon its floor. He can do no good there to the government or to Oregon. He would, we believe, follow in the tracks—far off to be sure—of such men as Breckinridge, Bright, Toombs, and Powell. The loyal people of this State will sustain the Senate in purging itself of all such characters.

SOUTHERN TREPIDATION.—The Richmond Whig of the 12th has come to the conclusion that "till the indications point to a long war"—that "it had hoped by a grand dash to have conquered a peace." It expresses the opinion that no peace that the south desires can be effected but by conquering the north; and if that cannot be done the south must submit to the fate of "the weaker party:" and goes on to say—"while we stand on the defensive, and the enemy is entrenched on this side of the Potomac, it is impossible for us to destroy his supremacy at sea, or prevent his predatory incursions on our coast. We are subjected to all the disadvantages of a defensive war of indefinite duration, or of a peace dictated by the enemy. The possibility of our success is not within the range of accident. To prevent our subjugation or extermination is all we can hope for. We have no skill in strategy, and know nothing of the means at the command of our generals; but if this is all that is left to us, we had as well be touching foot for terms of submission, and the sooner the better. An endless war, which affords no opportunity either for victory or revenge, is a bootless undertaking."

This is the most sensible article published in the Richmond Whig for a long time. Ground your arms and we will talk of terms.

CONSOLIDATED.—The Oregonian and Farmer are consolidated together, and are now published in the same building. The proprietor of the Oregonian has, we understand, purchased a half interest in the concern.—Advertiser.

It is very true that the Oregonian and Farmer are published in the same building; and it is also true that the Muggins of the Advertiser sleeps in the same building; but it is not true that Muggins is consolidated with the Oregon Farmer, though he was very desirous of such a consolidation.

The Muggins who presides over the Advertiser, says that no danger need be apprehended from the Knights of the Golden Circle in Oregon. We do not intend there shall be. We are quite aware of the great pains you are taking to keep your meetings secret. But we already know enough of those meetings to make you feel very uncomfortable. Your time will come, if you are not a little more careful.

Proper Rebel Allies.

The Southern Secessionists, and their allies here, do not believe in the employment of the colored race in this rebellion, except it should be on their own side. Upon this point we agree with them. We do not wish to employ savages to put down the rebellion, not even the ignorant race of slaves, by whom the rebels in the field are surrounded.

Our government was at great expense in transporting the Indians of Florida, and of Georgia, and Alabama, to the country now occupied by them west of Arkansas. They paid them vast amounts of money for their lands, for their subsistence until they were able to sustain themselves, and agreed to pay them heavy annuities. With their consent, much of the money due them was invested in bonds,—the same which were stolen by Floyd, Secretary of War under Buchanan. They have been constantly receiving their annuities as they became due.

These Indians have been induced to play false to our government, and are furnishing men for the confederate forces. They join the rebels with their rifles, tomahawks and scalping knives. The Indians thus likely to participate in the present war are the Choctaws and Chickasaws, who number about 5,000; the Creeks, 15,000; the Seminoles 3,000; the Cherokees, 21,000; and the Osages and other small tribes about 5000. In the predatory warfare in which these tribes will be employed, they will be dangerous enemies. The Choctaws are very much advanced in civilized life, having newspapers, schools and churches, a government similar to our own, and they boast that they have never shed the blood of white men in battle. The Cherokees are extremely warlike and have always fought with bravery and ferocity.

Of necessity the annuities and treaty rights will no longer be paid to these Indians, and their funds invested in bonds will not be likely to be paid, unless the thief, Floyd, should hand them over. Congress will be likely to repeal the acts by which they hold their lands, and their condition, will in time, be far worse than it was in the States from whence they migrated.

Strange as it may seem, the secession papers of Oregon, which profess great fears of the Indians on our frontiers, have never uttered a word of complaint or indignation against their secession brethren for employing the savages of the wilderness, to rob and murder the people of Missouri, because they will not submit to be governed by the New Dahomey of the South. They have no horrors for the tomahawk and scalping knife when it is applied to the Union men of Missouri, or their wives and children.

"We have no other government but the confederate government."—BENJ. STARK.

Gov. Whitaker Senator for Oregon.

"We must have a government. Without this, we have no liberty, no law, no property, and, in fact, no safety for life. The plotters against our government must be put down or put out. If they succeed, we are all slaves; and, if we should not be slaves, they must be punished. God is trying us very severely. He is making us feel that if we would deserve our freedom we must suffer and die for it. He has sent upon us this epidemic of secession to test alike our courage and our constancy. If we can contend against it we shall have a long lease of constitutional self-government. If we yield to it, we shall not deserve our own respect or the respect of the nations, but will add one more failure to the black list that frowns like a gloomy admonition upon the eloquent page of history. If we would triumph, we must be bold and relentless against all shapes of treason. And we will triumph."

ONE THING IS CERTAIN.—All secessionists like to get a grab at Uncle Samuel's money. They hold their hands in the Treasury as long as possible, and their convictions that the government should be broken up are about in exact proportion to the dose of the chances to lay their hands by the government "palmetto."

THE SEDITION LAW.—We hear no more from the Advertiser on the sedition law. Such authority, as we have given in its favor, seems to have thrown a chill over our neighbor. If that law was in existence now, he would be likely to be found in some other employment than exciting sedition against the government that protects him.

"So long as the rebels have arms in their hands, there is nothing left to compromise but the honor of the country and the security of the government, and no man with a soul above that of a coward is prepared for such submission."—JOSEPH HOLT, a Kentucky Democrat.

Every loyal heart, everywhere, will respond AMEN, to this sentiment.

WEST POINTERS.—We are aware that in some quarter there has been prejudice against this institution; but the experience of the last few months has done much to show its value. In all parts of the loyal States, most out of the army, graduates of West Point, have readily gone into the service of the country. They have been glad to give this evidence of their gratitude to the country for the advantages the institution afforded them in early life. Our armies are mainly led by officers educated at West Point, and to a very great extent they are the right arm of the country in its present struggle for existence.

"It was expected the Peace Democrats would pull a large vote."

The Advertiser says this of the Maryland election. The Peace Democrats, it is well known, are those who are anxious to precipitate Maryland into rebellion against the government; and the same article from which the Advertiser condenses this notice of the Maryland election, says that it supposed that 14,000 Peace Democrats have escaped from the State and have joined the army of the rebels. The readers of the Advertiser, and others, are thus enabled to understand the character of Peace Democrats.

LOOKING A LITTLE AHEAD.—A letter from Olympia says, "A telegraph to Portland from Yreka, is now a necessity, and we will have one to connect with it from this place in three months thereafter, via Vancouver, and from Vancouver it will ultimately extend to the Dalles and to Walla Walla. I think you and I will like to read news not more than 24 hours old from every part of the world before breakfast!"

E. B. Stimble, who for a time ran an express, for the benefit of the Southern Confederacy, between Washington and Richmond, a native of Pennsylvania, went to Connecticut, with the view of getting up and addressing "peace meetings." He was taken up by the Marshal, by orders from Washington, and sent to Fort Lafayette.

The town of Alexandria, Va., presents sad evidences of the effects of rebellion. Its business has ceased, its old inhabitants are gone and their houses are closed; its cheerfulness has departed; its promenades are neglected. Alas! this change!

The secessionists in the loyal States have a sort of lingering love for James Buchanan. They must feel sadly disappointed in learning that their old friend emphatically denounces, in a published letter "the discussion of peace propositions."

STABBING AFFAIR.—A letter dated at Coose Bay, Nov. 2, to the Statesman, states, that in a drinking saloon Henry Neville drew a sheath knife and, without any apparent cause, stabbed an inoffensive man, named, George Dorsett. One day after this took place, Dorsett was regarded as in a critical condition. It was apprehended that if he should die, Neville would be lynched.

CALIFORNIA MINERS.—The rush of California miners for the Oregon mines has already commenced. The Pacific brought up a large number. Many of them are from Sierra county.

MOVEMENTS OF TROOPS.—Company D, 3d Artillery, Lieut. Robertson, sailed on the Pacific for the Island of San Juan; and Company E, U. S. Volunteers, Capt. Crowninshield, sailed on the same steamer for Steilacoom.

MARRIED,

CITY.

Excessive Heat.—The lamentable accident which occurred in this city last week, we hope will furnish an admonition against the use of "burning fluid" for light.—There is always danger in using it. You may use it for years without injury, and then from some unknown cause explosion may take place, with the most heart-rending results.

Forty five pounds of apples make a legal bushel. We have seen an apple raised by Joel Knight of Clark county, W. T., which weighed 2 pounds and 13½ ounces. It is a "Gloria Mundi." Less than sixteen apples would make more than a bushel.

Asahel Bush, Esq., editor of the Statesman, arrived in the Pacific. He says that there are not two parties in the Eastern States, "Union and Disunion."

Justice's Court.—A man named Mitchell, was brought up on two charges of assault and battery on a couple of boys. Justice Story fined him $5 on one charge and acquitted him of the other.

Exports.—The steamer Pacific which sailed yesterday evening for Victoria, took out the following freight:—2,889 sacks flour; 40 boxes apples; 74 lbs butter, 19 boxes eggs; 28 sacks bacon; 3 barrels cider; 9 coops chickens.

The Circuit Court yesterday was occupied in hearing motions and re-entering judgements by default.

Charity Ball.—The ball for the benefit of the school of the Sisters of Charity comes off this evening.

The Adams Prospecting Expedition.—Our readers will recollect that an expedition left here on the 3d Sept. for the Malheur river, under the direction of J. L. Adams, to find some gold diggings there said to have been discovered by Adams. The party numbered seventy-one. Before reaching the place designated, it was ascertained that Adams had never been upon the grounds where it was said that he had discovered mines, which was confessed by himself and confederates. The company struck the mountains north of Malheur river and did not visit it. They required Adams to leave the company and he went off for Walla Walla. Some of the company were for lynching him. The party to which our informant, Mr. Chittenden, belonged, returned by the way of John Day river. At the head of that river, and for 60 miles down, they found excellent diggings, averaging ten cents to the pan. Without doubt many of the company will return to these gold fields, which are sufficiently extensive to give employment to a large number of miners.

Grain is becoming an institution of Oregon. We had a fine specimen from S. R. Thurston, Delegate, a few days since, and now have to acknowledge another from G. W. Watkins, of the Willamette Nursery and Orchards. It's a capital article.

Coughs.—The sudden changes of our climate are active promoters of Bronchial and Asthmatic Affections having proved that simple remedies do act speedily and certainly when taken in the early stages of the disease, recourse should at once be had to Brown's Bronchial Troches," or Lozenges, for the Cold, Cough or Irritation of the Throat be ever so slight, as by neglecting a more serious attack may be speedily contracted. Public Speakers and Singers will find them very beneficial in clearing and strengthening the voice. Sold everywhere.

Dr. Swett's Grape Bitters, or Restorative Wine, manufactured under the supervision of Mrs. A. M. Swett, the celebrated Clairvoyant Physician, and prepared from roots and herbs of great medicinal virtue, combined with the pure juice of the California Grape—a certain remedy for Liver Complaint, Debility, Biliousness, Costiveness, Indigestion, Impaired Appetite, Impure Breath, &c., and all diseases requiring a powerful Liver Invigorator and Tonic. Warranted the best remedy, certain relief for Diseases of the Kidneys, Inflammations, of Whites, Weaknesses, &c. Sold by all Druggists, and by DANIEL SWETT, Proprietor, No. 6 Battery street, San Francisco. ang28dm

☞ The Medical and Surgical Institute of Dr. L. J. CHAYKAY is already secured in a position which places it as far above the reach of calumny and professional malice. In the schools in France, the highest honors are awarded to practitioners in this department of medical science, and they occupy with others an equally high position in the profession. Ricord, an Austrian example, a shining light among the philosophic luminaries of this age in Europe, and Dr. Chaykay has fully equalled him in the country as a proof of which the Philadelphia College of Medicine complimented him with a Diploma, and the honorary Leaudent degree. Selecting this as his field of operation, although qualified as a graduate of the University of Pesth, and late Chief Surgeon of the Hungarian Revolutionary army, for more extended labors, Dr. L. J. Chaykay has bent his earnest attention to the cure of chronic and private diseases, in which he has become so great an expert, that he is now regarded as the leading in this branch of his profession throughout the United States, and his portrait and biography are published as matter of interest to their readers in the most extensive journals. The Doctor's offices are at his Medical and Surgical Institute, in Sacramento street, corner of Leidesdorff, nearly opposite the Publishers of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company, San Francisco. We ask particular attention to our readers to the warm certificates of remarkable cures in another column of this paper. Persons not wishing to desert in correspondence, please enclose $5 in their letters, and they will get his speedy attention to their cases. Address, L. J. CHAYKAY, M. NEWSPAPERARCHIVE®

Annual Conference of the United Brethren in Christ.

The annual conference of the United Brethren in Christ, was held in Swale valley, Douglas county, Oregon, commenced on the 12th day of October, 1861. The following resolutions on the state of the country were adopted:

Resolved That in the formation of the American Union, we cannot but recognize the Providence of God as well as the great care and unparalleled wisdom of the republic which not only made no provision for its disruption, but on the contrary did make provision for its permanency and perpetuity, therefore secession as now attempted is treason against the government.

Resolved That our unprecedented prosperity as a nation, is an evidence of the wisdom and benignity of our government, and foreshadows its importance to the welfare and progress of the human race; therefore, we cannot but regard any attempt to overthrow it as being at war with the most cherished hopes and best interests of society, and is fraught with immeasurable evil.

Resolved However much the subject of slavery may be ignored in the present conflict, yet we regard this as the fruitful source of our present national trouble, in which it clearly indicates the spirit of aggression, intolerance and oppression, and its entire incompatibility with freedom and free institutions.

Resolved While we would express a love towards sister churches, yet inasmuch as the fear of God, we do believe that the churches of America are to a great extent responsible for the growth, extension, and perpetuity of the great sin of slavery. And we would entreat those churches especially who agitate with us that this is a great evil and a crying sin, and yet receive slaveholders in their communion, to consider the propriety of withholding fellowship from all who claim property in man.

Resolved That in the fearful struggle now going on between the Government and those who are madly and wickedly trying to subvert it we see no alternation but to resist force by force, and though we ever deprecate war and greatly deplore bloodshed, yet in the present crisis, we believe it is the duty of every good citizen to support and sustain the government against enemies abroad and traitors at home.

Resolved That in the trying ordeal through which the government is now passing there is no neutral ground, neither is inaction manifestation or patriotism, but is fraught with incalculable evil, and if it should obtain to any considerable extent must tend to the subversion of the government.

Resolved That we have implicit confidence in the ability, wisdom, and energy of the present government of the United States, to put down rebellion and restore peace; and therefore we will give it our hearty support.

Resolved As our hope of success is in God we will pray for the welfare of our government; for wisdom to guide our rulers, for success to crown their efforts; that right may triumph over wrong, justice over injustice, and that this Republic may arise from the present struggle purer and more powerful than ever before, and that she may still occupy a worthy position among the nations of the earth.

JOHN MIDDLETON, Notary Public.

Marysville, June [illegible] 1861.

Dr. L. J. Czapkay, San Francisco—Sir: I have taken the last [illegible] of your medicine and do not think I [illegible] as I had very well except that I have [illegible] my strength yet, but soon will with the [illegible] In the course of [illegible] weeks, you may recollect, since I [illegible] you this state, with my constitution, and I [illegible] you, I positively will never thought you would be able to [illegible] certainly but thought you might be able to [illegible] I take the liberty to [illegible] my back and head and [illegible] pain as that I would not get excited and [illegible] cylinder. You know what I [illegible] judge by results" [illegible] action at my complete [illegible] sympathize and the removal of those [illegible] my skin and the [illegible] cure from my chronic [illegible] pain of the rheumatism, which you said were [illegible] entire cure of sickness. I can hardly tell you [illegible] greatest my joy may surprise, for except [illegible] by strength I feel as well as any man [illegible]

P. S. I send you twenty dollars every [illegible] think you entirely cured. If you think [illegible] mention my name, put this letter in the [illegible] have me gratefully yours, THOMAS H. [illegible]

Thankfulness is the incentive to [illegible]

[illegible]ATE.—Prompted by an honest desire [illegible] I wish to say here to the public cause which [illegible] men I utter not only again act of [illegible] humanity. About two years ago, I [illegible] cold, which soon [illegible] known to me, was seized with a [illegible] which [illegible] me in all duty to meet the [illegible] quent upon it, through [illegible] medical treatment, and [illegible] given up [illegible] but met with no attempt [illegible] cure of [illegible] them left to believe [illegible] to say the [illegible] physician. I was frequently, while in pursuit [illegible] the world, to the ground without the [illegible] and [illegible] insensible to the [illegible] I soon learned to look upon [illegible] my life, and soon learned to look upon [illegible] with [illegible] assistance or shelter me from [illegible] storm.
